Snakes worry southwest residents

BELLE GLADE-Snakes in houses was an issue of concern for some residents who live on SW 13th and 14th street. Residents took their worry to the Belle Glade City Commission on Monday night, October 14.

Citizen Dorothy Oliver, who lives on SW 13th street, told the commissioners that the drainage ditch and densely foliated area behind the Gladys Plaza was the origin of the snakes, which crawl into residents houses.

"It hasn't been cleaned for I don't know how long," said Oliver. "It's unsanitary. There are more snakes in houses than in the creek."

Oliver also commented on the fact that the dense brush and high maiden cane is a target area for crime.

Mayor Tom Altman asked if the area was public property and if the ditch would serve for drainage purposes.

City Manager W. E. "Tom" Strang said he believes the ditch is private property. He said that the owners have been asked several times to care for the property and have also faced the code enforcement board last year.

Strang said he knew that the South Florida Conservancy District own an adjoining ditch, which is maintained by the Public Works Department.

Commissioner Dan Bythewood said the problem ditch did need to be covered up and that the brush plus other foliage in the area needed to be cut.

"It's real bad," Bythewood said. "The maiden cane can grow to be six feet high. This is the third time taxpayers have come in to complain about that particular area."

Altman instructed Strang and his staff do

Misunderstanding leads to argument in meeting

SOUTH BAY-A misunderstanding about parliamentary procedure had South Bay citizens in an uproar at the South Bay commission meeting, Tuesday night, October 15.

The misunderstanding took place during the second and final public hearing for the comprehensive development plan.

The plan includes housing developing plans for a housing unit to be built in the SW 9th and 10th avenue areas and medium density housing for tract 35, along Hwy Street.

Before citizens were made aware of the fact, just because the commission approved the comprehensive development plan, rezoning wasn't going to start the next day.

The commission first needed to approve the comprehensive plan; send it to the state to hold for 90 days and approve and send it back to the commission to decide whether or not to recognize the rezoning.

Parents join children in Lunch Week Program

By ELKE SCHWARZ

BELLE GLADE-Many parents will be joining their youngsters in school cafeterias this week, as Palm Beach County Schools celebrate National School Lunch Week.

At Gove Elementary, this event is practically a tradition. Along with lunch, parents were invited to visit their children in their classrooms. Gove Principal Ruth Irvin says the parent participation level is high.

"About 500-600 parents come and eat lunch with the students," said Irvin. "We get a very positive response from them and the kids like it very much."

Charlene Smith, first grade teacher at Gove, agrees.

"It's a big occasion for the parent and child," she said. "The parent can even talk to the teacher in an informal setting to see how their child is doing. It's a nice experience for everybody."

This makes the second year that Kathy Moore,

Sweet Adelines harmony is pleasing to Dolly Hand crowd

BELLE GLADE-The Suncoast Chapter of the Sweet Adelines, out of Miami, sang very sweetly for their audience at Dolly Hand, Saturday night, October 12.

The chorus of 50 women singing four part harmony scapella (without music) proved that the human voice could make enjoyable music without the help of any instruments.

The Sweet Adelines, under the direction of Iris Cokeroff, started out their 1 1/2 hour show by singing a Broadway tune. "That's Entertainment" and continued to entertain the audience with old songs such as "Mona Lisa," "Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days of Summer" and "Paper Moon", all with a little choreography thrown in. The group also sang some old favorites before featuring a few barbershop quartets.

"Sound Agreement", one of the barbershop quartets, said they got their name because all four singers 'agreed to make a wonderful sound.'

And singing songs such as "Crazy Rhythmin" and "If" in perfect harmony, they did make a wonderful sound.

The group also added that they were "Professional Women" and were Pro Women's Lib and ERA. After that statement, they sang "Utilize Your Femininity" to prove their point.

An audience participation was also called upon. Ms. Cokeroff had the audience do a little sing-a-long on two old favorites, "Wild Irish Rose" and "Let me call you Sweetheart".

Also featured in the concert, was a barbershop quartet, "Classified", who would be competing in the National Barbershop Quartet Competition in Kansas, in three weeks.

After hearing their harmony on their songs "Hi Neighbor" and "Write Myself A Letter", one could almost assure the four women a first place in the national competition.

A new twist in their 1 1/2 hour performance, Classified sang some commercial jingles, all of course, in perfect harmony.

Next on the Dolly Hand agenda, is the Band of the Air Force Reserve, performing a free concert on Thursday, October 24.

Tickets are limited 4 to a family and may be reserved. Call Judy Schiele at 996-3055 for more information.

Sorority working on heart train in Pahokee City Park

The Xi Beta Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is busily working to place a heart trail at the Pahokee City Park in memory of Dr. F.H. Poteete Jr. This is the chapter's main project for the year and members are pleased with the support of city and local persons.

Xi Beta Tau has applied to Palm Beach County Chapter of the American Heart Association for funding for 20 exercise stations to line the walking trail. The trail will be in a figure eight design which, when completed three times, equals one mile. One loop is to be entirely in the shade and when completed seven times equals one mile.

The surface of the trail will be wood chips lined with railroad ties which have been generously donated by U.S. Sugar Corporation.

Plans include a dedication walk-a-thon with proceeds to go to the American Heart Association. The city has agreed to help maintain the trail. The security trailer now placed at the park will ensure the public's safety.

Xi Beta Tau plans to hold a fashion show, "Putting on the Ritz," this Saturday night at the Prince Theatre at 7:30 p.m. with all proceeds going toward the purchase of the Dr. Poteete dedication plaque, landscaping, benches, etc.

The Dr. Poteete Heart Trail can and will benefit all persons interested in health, exercise, or simply a need to walk among friends as Dr. Poteete surely did.

PAHOKEE OBSERVATION

By Eric Kopp

Terrorists abroad, tyrants at home

It's happened again. We've lost another American life in the hands of barbarians.

Although, this time the American government is at least making an attempt to see that justice is done. I prefer to withhold praise until that justice is served.

I agree with President Carter in as much as the terrorists should not be tried in the United States. If they were to go to trial, say in Italy, their trial and subsequent sentencing would surely be swifter.

I'm impressed with the courage of the Palestinians. They not only had the guts to kill an unarmed American, but one that was partially paralyzed and in a wheel chair.

With grit and backbone such as that we should have had them fighting for us in Vietnam. Maybe the government would have allowed them to win the war instead of just lowering the male population of the United States.

Call it a Redneck attitude if you wish, but I get tired of seeing the United States pushed around by some moronic adolescents trying to be men.

As far as I'm concerned they are no closer to being men than Lynda Carter.

They're even further from being human beings than they are men.

You wanna talk guts, I'm going to tell you what real courage is.

I do know how many of you have had the pleasure of working on a newspaper, but you haven't lived until you've gone through publication day.

Publication day is when all the troops gather round to put the paper together. Talk about a madhouse. National Lampoon's Animal House doesn't come close to comparing with the chaos of the composition room on Wednesday's.

Grown adults are given to infantile babbling, uncontrollable fits of profanity, and by the end of the day resemble zombies.

Come Wednesday night everyone is ready for the magic padded ride to the Enchanted Kingdom.

There's always this one person who thinks he's the straw boss walking around with his whip in hand and his chest puffed out like a beer barrel, to oversee this loney bin.

He's called an editor. (As well as many other things behind his back.)

"C'mon boy, hurry up! What's the matter, got rocks in your head? That's the worst looking layout I've even seen. Redo it! And be quick about it or else!" he bellows.

Permission to get a drink of water, boss?" I ask.

"Fergit it dirt bag! You've only been here ten hours, so you can't be thirsty yet. Lazy."

His breath smells like printer's ink. "Yessir boss," I answer wearily.

I have dreamt of this so often it would be to ram a reem of paper down his throat, then watch him give birth to thousands of tiny newspapers.

"AAAAAGH, I can't take anymore," a lady shrieks as she begins to rip layout pages to shreds, turning copy into confetti.

The straw boss, wearing the alias of editor, charges over to her like a bull elephant, grabbing the trembling female.

"By now she looks like she's having a seizure. He carries her off to our one little padded room, where all we spend some time eventually."

"That's it," I yell, slamming my Exacto knife on the table. "I'm tired of that insensitive, bubble-headed slob, treating us like animals."

CRACK!

I feel the searing pain of his whip on my back, curbing my rash outbreak.

"What'd you say you were going to do boy?" (Have you ever had someone yell a Yankee accent call you boy. It's semi-hilarious.)

I stand toe to toe with him, staring straight into his mirrored sunglasses, overcome with nausea from the stench of his cigar and underwear.

"I said, I'm not going to stand by and let you treat us like dogs with mange, you weenie!"

"That does it. I know you've taken leave of your senses talking to me like that. It's off to solitary for you. No food and no water."

"No food and no water? So what else is new buzzard breed. I say indignantly.

He waves to a couple of his mindless followers. They sweep me off my feet, and it's to the padded room I go.

As I lay on the floor and watch three rats in the corner contemplate my demise, I suddenly realize something.

I know I won't be confined very long. I've got to get out of here to cover in Pahokee Friday, and I know that sucker isn't about to cover it.

I just hope I can hold out that long. The rats already have forks in their hot little paws.

'If you put my tip on the floor, I can say I found it and won't have to claim it on my taxes.'

At stake is a way of life for everyone

The sugar industry won the first round of their Congressional battle for passage of the 1985 Farm Bill and a continuation of the sugar loan program included in it when the House okayed their version of the bill last week.

The Senate will take up their version of the bill next week.

The sugar loan program has come under fire since five area producers forfeited more than 290,000 tons of raw sugar last month when they were unable to make payment of $105 million in loans.

It is not the first time the U.S. government has been in the sugar business, but critics point their fingers, saying the forfeiture knocks out a key argument for the industry: that the loan program does not cost the government a cent.

But the last time sugar was forfeited, back in 1979, the U.S. government turned a profit of almost $80 million by selling the sugar as prices rose following the forfeiture, according to one area industry official.

Much of the blame for this year's forfeiture can be put on the shoulders of the federal government, who, in the guise of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, set import quotas of 1.85 million tons over the next ten months.

While a reduction in overall amount, the quotas far exceeded any reasonable estimates on the part of the sugar industry and is nothing more than an attempt by the Reagan administration to placate Caribbean and Latin American sugar producers.

Another key argument, led by soft drink manufacturers and bakers, is that sugar prices kept artificially high hurt consumers.

Yet while sugar prices have dropped drastically since their high in 1974, candy and soft drinks prices have continued to climb. And soft drink makers are turning from sugar to other sweeteners, such as corn syrup, for their products. This further decreases the domestic market.

The sugar loan program is possibly the single most vital concern for the Glades area at this time. Recent studies of the industry's impact on South Florida's economy show that sugar accounts for more than 30 percent of cash receipts in Palm Beach and Glades Counties and 20 percent in Hendry County.

In an ideal economic system, price supports would not be needed. But the American sugar producer, the most efficient in the world, cannot challenge foreign producers who are heavily subsidized by their own governments without this kind of program.

The sugar loan program should be continued. A way of life is at stake.

Salt And Light

BY REV. HOLLAND VAUGHN, FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

To be religious, one must start with a good foundation

Matt. 7:24-27. "Every one then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house upon the rock; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it."

The problem with many people is they will talk about religion and consider themselves religious but are afraid to build their lives upon a good foundation of faith. When the rain falls and the floods come and wind blows and beats upon their house it falls and they become frustrated and unhappy.

The cause of the problem is they do not trust the little pinch of God which is in their lives that urges them to have faith and do the correct thing. Follow the urge of God, which is within you, and build your house on a good foundation, one that will withstand the rain, floods, and winds of life, and you will be happier. You will always be watched, but following the will of God you will always be happy.

A Salvation Army officer was asked if he ever became discouraged when people took advantage of his kindness. He said, "No, I never let myself think of that. I have built my life on a good foundation of faith, and I do what I think is right. If other people do what is wrong it is on their conscience and not mine."

Lives are like houses, they are always needing repair. Jesus is our carpenter. Keep building your life on a good foundation, and you will be happy.

RAIDER LOG

By Tommy Perryman

WITH DEEPEST SORROW

On Tuesday, October 8, Glades Central lost a very dear, loving, caring man in a tragic traffic accident near Lake Worth Road. Mr. Mildon, in the short time he was with the Raider family, left a deep and lasting impression of caring and devotion to all his fellow Raiders.

Just last week in my column, I reported on the musical genius of this man who was endowed with superb musical talent. I also foresaw that Mr. Mildon would change the chorus's sound, due to the fact that he had taught so many students in the past. Mr. Mildon wasn't with us long, but his influence will still be present in the voices of the chorus this year.

We, the students would like to extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. Mildon's family. One of the songs Mr. Mildon was teaching us was entitled "Corner Of The Sky". Mr. Mildon I know you've found your corner of the sky.

REACHING FOR EXCELLENCE

Aubin Robinson, a senior at Glades Central High School, recently was recognized as being one of 3,000 students who will be commended by 1,300 U.S. higher education institutions.

The National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Student's aim is not to award each individual student with citations, but to identify the students who are outstanding in the hope of increasing these student's admission and financial aid opportunities.

Aubin scored in the top 7 percent of the more than 70,000 black students who requested consideration in the 22nd annual Achievement Program. Glades Central was sent a letter of recognition by T.C. McMillan, Vice President of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

STATEBOUND

The Raider Varsity football team is looking superb this year. The Raiders have lost two valuable players with the injuries of Jonny Ivory and Anthony Woodfolk. Consequently, they have dropped to 3-1 with a loss of 6-3 against the Atlantic Eagles in a toughly fought battle of defense. However, we know that they will bounce back against the North Shore Mustangs tomorrow night with a new record of 4-1, with that superb Raider fire.

TEN GLORIOUS YEARS

Dr. Effie C. Grear, our principal and leader, is currently celebrating her tenth year at Glades Central.

Dr. Grear, along with her band of teachers, has been an admirable force in pushing students to reach to excellence.

The class of '86 will help Dr. Grear to celebrate her tenth year anniversary by giving her, along with all of the underclassmen, just what she has always wanted: our very best.

Cheers to Dr. Grear and her ten most successful years.

With football season well under way and the holiday months approaching, it seems there is an abundance of things to celebrate. Everyone knows that the art of celebration is a Gator specialty, and that GDS students with spirit can't be held back!

The dazzling Senior Class proved they have that spirit last Friday by capturing the highly coveted "spirit football." Even though the Class of '86 may be small in number, they're very big on GATOR PRIDE!

Our varsity football boys came through in style this week by defeating the Boca raton Academy Bulldogs, while the J.V. team triumphed over the Benjamin Bucs. Congratulations guys, there's no stopping you now!

You can compare the standard achievements of the last 3 grades of high school with the college in U.S.A. Students, who have difficulties with studying, can attend the Short-course Secondary school, after this school all students have to attend a vocational school, before they can take a job. Non-classical schools are the usual schools, however, students who want to go to the University can attend the high school. The mandatory school attendance is 10

Glades Day's academic games students have been doing well in Equations. After four rounds of play, the rookie division team is in third place, the elementary division teams are in first and second, and the senior high team is in first place.

They still have two more rounds to play in the west area and then the pit teams will go over to the coast to play an additional four rounds.

The J.V. football boys play the Moore Haven K-Terriers tonight on Gator field at 7 p.m. We're looking for another victory!

Friday begins with a door decorating contest to raise spirit for the King's Academy game. The theme is "Lay the Lions Low." A pep rally at 2 p.m. promises to spark excitement and we'll see if the seniors can keep the "spirit football" once again.

The band promises to satisfy stomachs with a chili dinner given Friday evening beginning at 5 p.m. The dinner includes chili, a 15-item salad bar, dessert, and beverage. Tickets are $4 and are available at the door.

The varsity Gators go up against King's Academy at home this week. Game time is at 8 p.m. Lay 'em low, Gators!

Young passes for two TD's, leads Pahokee to 12-4 victory

By ERIC KOPP

PAHOKEE—Sophomore quarterback Monroe Young threw touchdown passes of 34 and 56 yards to lead the Pahokee Blue Devils to a 12-4 win over the Jupiter Warriors.

Young's first TD toss came with 8:40 left in the second quarter when he hit senior wide receiver Reggie Mickens with a 34 yard strike to put the Blue Devils on top 6-0. The point after was no good.

In the same possession sophomore runningback Eric Bowles crossed the goal line earlier for the touchdown, only to have it called back because of a blocking below the waist penalty.

On the next play Pahokee was whistled for delay of game, and set back another five yards. The scoring strike came as Young set up in the shotgun formation, then hit Mickens as he blew by the defender.

With 31 seconds left in the half, and on his own 46, Young again flexed the muscles in his throwing arm and hit Bowles with a 56 yard scoring strike.

Again the extra point was wide of its mark. The second half turned into a bruising defensive battle as neither team was able to move

...2 touchdown passes

...2 TD saving tackles

the ball.

The Warriors' only points came on two safeties in the final stanza.

Jupiter's only real scoring threat came late in the third quarter when runningback Chris Bedford took the handoff on Pahokee's 47 and broke into the open, only to be caught from behind by Class 2-A sprint star Mickens.

Mickens tackled the Jupiter back on the Pahokee four yard line.

The Blue Devils defense held, and the Pahokee offense took over on their own one yard line.

On the first play from scrimmage Jupiter trapped Pahokee in the endzone for a safety with 10:19 left in the fourth quarter.

Then with 6:50 left in the game, and a second and 10 situation, Bowles was tackled in his own endzone for the Warrior's second safety of the evening.

Voted Most Valuable Player for the game by Blue Devil coaches was senior middle linebacker Pell Thompson. Thompson was credited with 20 solo tackles and nine assists. He also caused three fumbles.

Most Valuable Offensive Back was Eric Bowles; Most Valuable Offensive Lineman kudos went to center Blaze Thompson.

The Most Valuable Defensive Back was Reggie Mickens, who was credited with two touchdown saving tackles.

Most Valuable Defensive Lineman awards went to Tyrone Hickman, with 10 solo tackles.

The Unsung Hero of the game was defensive tackle Curtis Smith with seven solo tackles, one blocked punt, and two quarterback sacks. "It was a sweet victory," said head coach Don Thompson.

"Last week's 16-8 loss to Bishop Verot really hurt our program. It shamed the kids, so we needed this win to get our program back on the right track, and make Pahokee football important to the kids again," he said.

The Blue Devils are off this week, and will use the extra seven days to prepare for 3-A foe Pope John Paul.

"We need the week off to let the kids relax and heal up."

"Since that loss to Bishop Verot our team has been under a lot of pressure, but they've handled it well and came back to get that big win against Jupiter, so they have earned the time off," he added.

Thompson said he expects Pope John Paul to use the power game against his team, and utilize the short passing game.

The head coach said he plans to continue with the passing game from the shotgun formation, and try to take advantage of the Blue Devils' speed against the larger Pope John Paul players.

The homecoming contest is slated for an 8:00 kick-off.

Fishing on the 'Big O' with pro guide Tennessee

You know, folks, it always does my heart good to see little kids learning to fish. But what makes me even happier is to see some of our senior citizens really enjoying this sport.

I understand that there's one little lady in the Marina Campgrounds who claims to have lived over three-quarters of a century, that's been tearing the bass up on black worms!

How 'bout it, "Granny Barr"? If the stories I hear are truth, maybe you could give me some fishing tips!

Another big fisherman from the campgrounds is Col. Myer. Seems he's been listening to Granny Barr and using black worms that produced limits for him three days last week with some fish weighing as much as 5 pounds!

Ken Bowermeister also brought in a double limit with one of his guide trips. And one of my trips last week were real proud of their double limit.

The Lake Okeechobee Tackle Testers most recent tournament saw Bruce Painter not only come in, first place, but he also brought in the biggest fish.

Wayne Peacock came in second, while H.L. Barlier took third and David Sullivan as fourth.

Folks, I can't talk enough about safety on our lake. With the lake continuing to rise, naturally there are places to fish that we couldn't get into this summer.

One of them being Dead River. Now, Dead River isn't very wide at the best of times, so when you're using this area, whether fishing or going and coming from Pelican Bay, please "Slow Down". No one likes to get "swamped" when they're sitting in their boat fishing.

And there are few things more dangerous than coming out of Dead River into the Rim Canal wide open. After some of the carelessness I saw last weekend, I'm surprised there aren't more boating accidents in this area.

Use more caution and be a little more polite. Until next week, safe boating and good luck fishing.

RAIDER DEFENSIVE BACK DARRELL SANDERS prepares to make the hit on an Atlantic runningback in last Friday's 6-3 loss.

Raiders lose 6-3 in battle of field goals

BELLE GLADE—The Glades Central Raiders lost their first game Friday night at home by a foot—the foot of Atlantic placekicker Andy Stewart.

Stewart booted kicks of 42 and 35 yards, the last with 11:11 left in the game, to give the Atlantic Eagles a 3-0 win.

The loss moved the Raiders to 3-1 on the year, while 4A Atlantic evened their record at 2-2.

The Raiders got their own kicks in early, as Mike Smith hit on a 25 yard field goal with 4:20 left in the first quarter.

The drive started at the Eagle 23 when Anthony Burden, recovered an Andre Thaddies fumble. Four running plays and an offside penalty moved the ball to the seven and Smith split the uprights on fourth and three.

MICHAEL SMITH

The Eagles didn't get on the board until the late in the second quarter. Atlantic took nine plays and more than five minutes to set up Stewart's 42 yard field goal that tied the game.

The Raiders had a chance a few minutes later, recovering another fumble by Thaddies on the Eagle 36. But Raider QB Jimmy Spencer gave the ball back on a fumble of his own.

Even after Stewart's second kick, the Eagles could not rest easy until Smith's attempt from 22 yards out sailed wide to the left with 4:05 left.

Both defenses played tough throughout. Glades Central gave up 107 yards, all on the ground, while the Atlantic defense held the Raiders to 100 yards total, 43 rushing and 57 passing.

Glades Central will face District 7-AAA opponent North Shore next week.

Gators ride on Hundley's leg for 11-7 win over Boca Academy

BOCA RATON—Riding on the legs of senior quarterback John Hundley, the Glades Day Gators broke into the win column for the first time this season with an 11-7 win over Boca Academy, in Boca Raton.

Trailing 7-0, mid-way through the third quarter, Hundley broke free on a third and three, counter option play and galloped 92 yards for the Gator touchdown.

Fullback Willie Bueno added the two-point conversion to give the Gators an 8-7 lead.

With 9:04 left in the game Hundley added a 23 yard field goal to give the Gators an 11-7 lead, and the win.

With 2:15 left to play Boca Academy had first and goal to go, but the Gator defense held strong with defensive back Jason Mann breaking up a Boca desperation pass to give the Gators their initial win of the '85 season.

"We finally got some breaks, and I think it's all starting to even out for us now," said head coach Byron Walker.

In their previous outings the Gators had committed a total of 18 turnovers, but in Saturday's contest Glades Day didn't have a turnover. Instead it was Boca turning the ball over twice.

The Gators were penalized nine times for 80 yards, while Boca for the yellow flag thrown on them nine times for 90 yards.

Gator tailback Jorge Suarez failed to reach the century mark in rushing yards for the first time this season, as he gained 56 yards on eight carries to lead the Gators.

"On Hundley's touchdown run it very well could've been Jorge as he was the trailing back, but we caution John not to pitch the ball if he doesn't have too," said Walker.

The Gators rushed for a total of 134 yards, while Boca ran for 147 yards.

In the passing department Hundley was one for three, for a minus eight yards.

"We actually only had the ball for eight legitimate offensive plays in the second half. They controlled the ball real well," Walker said.

The head coach said he felt Glades Day played their worst offensive game of the season.

"We're used to having over 300 yards of offense, but our timing was off. I really felt that was due to the week lay off," he said.

"A lay off is good if you're busted up and need to heal. But in this case it through our timing off, and the kids came out flat in the first half."

"I feel Boca is the best 1-A team we've faced this year so the kids beat a very good football team," he added.

"I'm really up for this one, they are my arch enemy, and I never want to lose to them," said Walker as the Gators prepare to face King's Academy Friday.

"This will be an extremely physical game, because over the year's a real rivalry has developed between Glades Day and King's," he said.

Walker said eventhough King's is winless on the season they aren't to be taken lightly.

"They're as good an 0-5 team as you'll see in 1-A football," he said.

Most of Walker's concern centers around runningback Herbert Newsome. He said stopping Newsome will be the key to winning Friday night.

"Newsome isn't necessarily fast, but is very quick. He's a strong, slashing type runner. He's just a very solid runningback," he said.

He said the Gators will also have to be aware of King's fullback up the middle who Walker said is a "bowling ball" type of back.

Walker said offensively the Gators will have to establish their off-tackle running game.

"Since we haven't been throwing the ball well, we'll probably go back to the wishbone and three back set on offense," said Walker.

"Still the key is stopping Newsome. They like to get him outside and let him dance. We'll just get someone out there to dance with him," said the head mentor.

Walker said the Gators will go into the game injury free.

Glades Day defeated King's 7-0 in the fall jamboree hosted by the Gators.

Crusaders upset by Island Christian

BELLE GLADE—The Christian Day Crusaders lost their first game of the season 21-20 to Island Christian last Saturday Oct. 12. This puts the Crusaders at 4-1 in the middle of the season.

Head Coach Joe Ray said that the team wasn't up to par that day.

"We played a terrible game. Too many people went out and partied the night before," commented Ray, adding that players were 'asleep' during the game. "We've lowered the curfew to 10 p.m. instead of 11 p.m. and we're checking up on them. It's a shame that you have to treat high school students like little kids."

"They thought it was going to be an easy game, but Island Christian wanted to win more than we did," said Ray.

Island Christian scored the only touchdown in the first quarter of the game.

In the second quarter, the Crusaders quickly retaliated by catching the kickoff and driving the ball downfield. David Chamblee scored the touchdown and the conversion for the Crusaders.

Island Christian also scored during the second quarter.

Island Christian recovered a Crusader fumble at the 10 yard line and ended up scoring on it.

In the third quarter, Island Christian intercepted a pass thrown by Crusader

Joey Miller and carried the ball back to their side of the field.

Even though Crusaders Chamblee and Rodney Rumph scored touchdowns for their team, the Crusaders lost by a mere one point to Island Christian.

"They just didn't play like they should have," said Ray.

This Saturday, October 19, at 2 p.m. the Crusaders will play Potomac School at the 6 mile bend field.

GATOR LINEBACKER WILLIE BUENO gives chase to a Boca Academy runningback in Saturday's 11-7 victory in Boca Raton. The win was the first of the season for the Glades Day Gators.

Lost pet deserves prompt attention

What do you do if you've lost your pet? Start looking immediately. The more time you put between you and your lost pet, the harder it will become to locate it.

First search the neighborhood. Ride up and down your close streets calling your pet. Check with neighbors and friends as to the last time they've seen your pet. Incorporate the help of the neighborhood children. You would be surprised as to how observant and helpful they can be.

If this fails to locate your pet, call Animal Regulation at 924-5656, or your local animal shelter, and file a lost pet report.

Check to see if an animal matching your pet's description has been picked up injured, stray, or perhaps even buried.

Check also at local Animal Hospitals. Sometimes a person may have an animal hit by a car and take it for medical treatment.

If you have pictures of your pet, take them to your local grocery store and ask if you may post them with a little information as to where you can be contacted.

Sometimes offering a reward will make people take more notice.

If you suspect "fool play" and think your pet may have been stolen, file a report with your local law enforcement agency.

If your animal is found in someone else's back yard, it may make it easier to retrieve your pet if the people are unwilling to return it.

Continue to search the neighborhood. If you have lost a male dog, try to determine if there are any female dogs in season in the vicinity.

Male dogs have been known to travel long distances after females in heat.

If you still have not found your pet, try placing an ad in the newspaper. Be as accurate as possible in describing your pet.

A "brown female mutt," could fit the description of many dogs in your area. Try also to give an alternate phone number you can be reached at if you are not always home.

Most people will be willing to confine your lost pet if you can not be reached quickly.

And last, but not least, don't give up hope. Be consistent and determined.

Your pet has given you a lot of devotion and it deserves more effort on your part than just a quick roller out the back door.

Presented in cooperation with Glades Newspapers, Inc., and the Palm Beach County Animal Regulation Division.

Old motors not 'run of the mill'; Flywheelers display wares

LAKE HARBOR. Those who remember those once upon a time motors and even those who are too young to know what old motors were used for, would have enjoyed the Florida Flywheelers at John Stretch Park this past weekend. The Florida Flywheelers, a group of avid motor collectors, travel statewide displaying their motors for public enjoyment.

Carl Hymen, from Moore Haven, has been an avid motor collector for quite some time. Instead of being berated by his wife for dragging them home, he says that the wife 'likes them too'.

Some of his pride and joys include a 25 horse power Fairbanks Morse 1927 Model and a 15 horse power Fairbanks Morse 1916 Model. Hymen said the 25 horsepower was originally in the basement of the Ormond (Beach) Hotel. It weighs 8500 pounds and its wheels turn at 80 revolutions per minute.

Tony Ullrich, from Wauchula, owns a 816 International made by International Harvester in the 1920's, which starts on gasoline and runs on gasoline.

It took Ullrich, a welding machine shop owner, one year to fix. Hymen summed up the feelings of most of the Florida Flywheelers present.

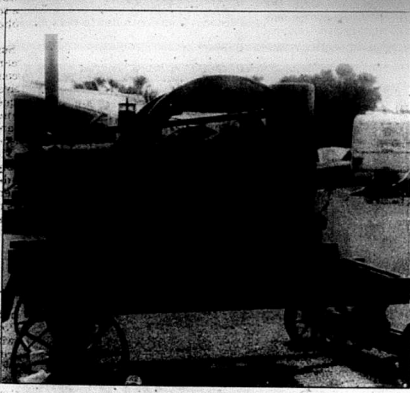

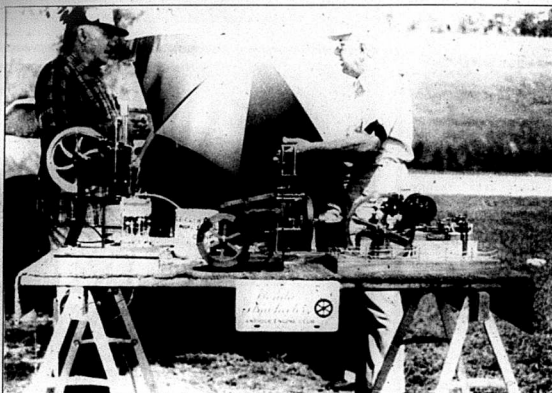

"We want to preserve from the past," he said. "So much of it is now cut up for scrap iron. We want to pass along the heritage to the younger kids who have no idea what these things are."

And with tender love and oil, Hymen said the motors will probably last forever.

"If they're properly maintained, they'll never wear out," said Hymen. "I love to hear them run."

The Emerald Isle

Montserrat is an example of a Caribbean island that still shows marked evidence of its Irish colonial heritage. In name, places, surnames, architecture, the touch of Irish brogue in speech as well as in the cool green of the countryside, Montserrat lays fair claim to its nickname, the "Emerald Isle." The island shines in the variety of villas available for rental. They run the gamut from intimate cottages to homes suitable for families to luxuriously appointed hideaways complete with private pool, tennis courts and large staffs. Another of Montserrat's secret treasures is its cuisine. We refer especially to the local specialties found in the small eateries that are scattered around the island.

Volunteers needed at Health Center

Volunteer auxiliaries are being formed in several of the Palm Beach County Health Department Health Care Centers. If you are the kind of individual who greatly cares about people and the needs of your community, then you are a prime candidate for this position.

Because of your caring nature, you probably have a very full schedule. However, the auxiliaries are specially designed for busy people and only require one to two hours each month. We need busy people because they know how to get the job done!

Jupiter and Belle Glade auxiliaries have been extremely successful and have been tremendous support groups for the regular volunteer programs. Their primary purpose is to research the needs of the Health Center and with staff approval and assistance, endeavor to help meet those needs.

Some of their projects have included providing gift baskets of food at Christmas and Thanksgiving, gift packages for newborn babies, recruiting regular volunteers, and general public relations for the health centers.

If you are interested and would like to give an hour or so of your time each month to this very worthwhile community service please call the volunteer coordinator in Belle Glade, Doris Miller 996-1608.

Positions are also open for regular volunteers at all centers who are willing to give a minimum of three to four hours weekly. Experience is not necessary as our volunteers are fully trained by a qualified staff person.

whatever they can to see who controls the ditch and to find out what the public works department can do in the meantime.

While on the subject of SW 13th and 14th streets, resident Henry Allen voiced his concern about the debris on the side of the road.

The city had been repaving the road for the past few weeks, but said Allen, had not cleaned up along the sides of the road and that potholes were forming on the sides of the road.

Strang said that the asphalt must dry and then be smoothed out. He assured Allen that the street would be cleaned up within the next few days.

In other matters the commission:

- Adopted a resolution to support the present jury district.
- Was informed by Strang that Lake Shore

Civic Center and the City's Municipal Building had developed leaks. Re-roofing, along with other aspects of fixing the leaks are being looked into.

• As asking the Chamber of Commerce to spearhead a Christmas decoration fund raising project.

Right now, the city only has enough Christmas decorations to decorate City Hall and the Fire Station.

• Was informed by Strang that the developers had broken ground on the golf course.

The city commission wrapped things up by holding its yearly re-organization. Tom Altman will resume wielding his gavel as Belle Glade Mayor for the next year. Claude Tindall will remain vice-mayor as will Commissioner Charlie Goodlett as treasurer, and John Baker will remain city attorney.

Resident Byron Walker voiced his discontentment about the considered units and stated that he didn't understand how zoning meets the requirements.

"We're caught up in a hodge-podge zoning again," said Walker.

He also said that the south end of town was "really beginning to look like something" and that another high density dwelling across from another high density dwelling would be a problem.

"It would be a concrete jungle," Walker said. "You'd have off street parking and the buildings are going to be wall to wall."

He suggested to the commission that the city should buy property, instead of letting private industry buy land and sell it back to the city.

An irate Walker also demanded to know from city officials the reason why a there was a public hearing and zoning board meeting was called the previous night to discuss the rezoning of tract

35's

"You proposed what you wanted to do. Sixteen to seventeen people showed up at a meeting and there was a 2-1 board vote for the rezoning," said Walker, who asked that Monday nights meeting to be made null and void. "It was a contrived, construed, crooked meeting. People were made unduly mad for nothing."

Citizen Christina Keaton, stood up and told the commission that she had been a resident on 9th Avenue for five months now.

"A 64 unit project will be chaos. It'll impact people and jam them together," she said. "Why pick on 9th Avenue? Why not 2nd and 3rd Avenues?"

She also said that more crime would probably be the outcome if so many people were living in one project.

Dr. Esther Berry, South Bay resident, suggested the commission reconsider the land use plan, since it was a matter of confusion to the citizens and the commission, at which time four citizens told city officials that they were against the plan and wanted to learn more about it before action was taken.

Mayor Clarence Anthony put a halt to the bantering going back and forth by spelling out to citizen's exactly why action was being taken to approve the comprehensive development plan.

"This is to determine the future development plan for the city. As of this point, the property hasn't been rezoned," he clarified. "The city needs to approve the plan, send it to Tallahassee for state approval, and then it will be sent back to us so that we can decide whether or not to rezone."

Anthony assured the citizens that they're arguments were not in vain because public input is needed and welcomed on any issue, particularly this one.

In other city matters:

• Anthony reminded commissioners about Employee Fitness Day on Oct. 21. Anthony challenged city commissioners to a race, running the distance from South Bay to Belle Glade.

Coke sale nets couple

SOUTH BAY -Two Clewiston residents were arrested by Palm Beach County Detectives on drug possession charges, after police witnessed an alleged drug transaction consummated in South Bay.

Detective Clarence Backhems said Catherine Thompson was charged with possession of cocaine with intent to sell, and Lorenzo Johnson was arrested on misdemeanor possession of marijuana charges.

According to sheriff department reports Backhems and Sergeant Al Gross, observed Thompson involved in what they believed to be the selling of narcotics in the 10th and Palm Beach Road area, Friday night.

Backhems said they stopped the vehicle on US 27 near Terry's Restaurant, and on the front seat of the car found a black coin purse containing 14 decks of cocaine.

Thompson was booked into the Palm Beach County Jail under $5,000 bond, and Johnson was booked under a $500 bond.

Restaurant burglarized

SOUTH BAY-South Bay Police are searching for an unknown suspect who robbed Terry's Restaurant, located at 610 NUS 27, on Monday night, October 14.

According to police report, the burglar broke into the trailer portion of the restaurant (parked south east of the restaurant), which is primarily used as an office area. An window air-conditioner was pushed in and the suspect apparently got into the cash drawer, took out the cash, totaling approximately $511, and escaped back through the window.

Police believe that the burglary may have taken place during a 20 minute power outage which occurred in the early morning hours.

Investigation nets cocaine rock dealer

SOUTH BAY-Police have wrapped up a two month undercover drug investigation case. This case has been in the works since August 30, when police went undercover to rid the area of drug dealings.

According to police report, undercover police were in the area of Linto's Pool Room, 190 NW 10th Ave, and observed Titus Barber, of 170 NW 12th Ave, South Bay, acting in a manner consistent with being a street dealer.

Barber sold the cocaine rocks to the undercover agent, who took the "rocks" back to the police department to make sure it really was cocaine.

A warrant was issued and Barber was arrested on Sunday, October 13, for sale of cocaine and placed under a $3,500 bond.

1/2 teaspoon dried mustard
Dash of cayenne pepper
2 cups milk

Cook lobster in a pressure cooker for 10 minutes; cool and chop.

Shrimp Club Sandwiches

Join the club of people who enjoy club sandwiches. A little added attraction is to make them with shrimp. Many also advocate adding an avocado.

Ingredients

12 slices bacon
Mayonnaise or salad dressing
12 slices white bread, toasted
4 lettuce leaves

12 slices tomatoes (about 2 medium)
2 can (4 1/4 ounces each) large shrimp, rinsed and drained
1 large avocado, thinly sliced

Fry bacon until crisp; drain. Spread mayonnaise over 1 side of each slice of toast. Place lettuce leaf, 3 slices tomato and 3 slices bacon on each of the 4 slices toast. Top with another slice of toast. Arrange shrimp on toast; top with avocado slices. Top with third slice toast; secure with wooden picks. Cut sandwiches diagonally into 4 triangles. Makes 4 servings.

For turkey club sandwiches: Substitute 4 slices cooked turkey or chicken for the shrimp.

A "maize"ing facts about Popcorn

Popcorn — North American Indians called corn "maize" — has been eaten and enjoyed for over 2000 years.

In days of old people thought a little demon lived inside each popcorn kernel. When his "house" was heated, the demon got mad and threw such a tantrum the kernel exploded.

Popcorn is grown all over the world, but most is grown in the United States.

Americans eat more than 450 million pounds of popcorn each year — that's 33 quarts per person! (Did you eat your share?)

Popped popcorn takes up to 37 times as much room as unpopped corn.

Popcorn is a completely natural, whole-grain food.

Since it has only 25 to 55 calories per cup, popcorn makes a great low-calorie snack.

Popcorn is low in fat, has no cholesterol, and is sugar-free.

Popcorn is economical — just pennies a serving.

Popcorn kernels contain a different type of starch from other corns, such as dent corn and sweet corn. This is the reason popcorn pops and other corns do not.

Popcorn pops best when it contains the correct moisture level. The optimum temperature for popping corn at home is 400° to 450°F.

Pop-Pop-Popping Along

When popping corn, approximately two parts of popcorn should be used for each part of oil.

Keeping the "Pop" in Popcorn

The key to storing popcorn for the best popping results is to maintain its moisture content. This is done by storing popcorn in an airtight container at room temperature, in the refrigerator, or in the freezer. Popcorn can be stored in the bag in which it was purchased if the bag is closed tightly. Another acceptable container is a jar or canister with a tight-fitting lid. When stored properly the shelf life of popcorn is unlimited.

Popcorn dries out when exposed to the air; however, it is possible to restore lost moisture to the corn by sprinkling it with water (about one tablespoon per pound of kernels). Cover the corn tightly and shake several times during the next 24 to 36 hour period. The popcorn should gain pop well.

Can You Believe It?

How many cups of popped corn does the proper popcorn popper pop if the proper popcorn popper properly pops one pound of unpopped corn?

Liqueurs lend spice to classic dishes

SIRLOIN ROAST livened with a spicy, herbal taste of Liqueure Galliano Hot Sauce is a real family pleaser when the weather turns cool.

An after dinner liqueur can lend elegance to a meal, making ordinary fare appealing and special. Liqueurs also lend a subtle difference to classic, but popular foods, such as roast beef and chocolate mousses. And after a summer of light meals of salads and sandwiches, autumn's nipper weather calls for these heartier dishes.

Liqueure Galliano, a golden liqueur from Italy, lends a spicy, pungent taste to sirloin roast when blended into a special hot sauce. And Banchan's orange and cognac liqueur from France, gives a rich chocolate moussé just a hint of citrus.

SIRLOIN ROAST WITH LIQUEURE GALLIANO® HOT SAUCE

1 4-pound beef sirloin roast
Place roast on rack in shallow roasting pan. Roast at 350 degrees about 2 hours for rare (140 degrees on meat thermometer) or 2½ hours for medium (160 degrees on meat thermometer), basting frequently with hot sauce.
Serves 6-8.

LIQUEURE GALLIANO® HOT SAUCE

2 cups catsup
1 cup chili sauce
½ cup Liqueure Galliano®
2 tablespoons Worcestershire Sauce
½ cup dark brown sugar
¼ cup lemon juice

Heat all ingredients together in saucepan. Keep hot.

CHOCOLATE MOUSSE

½ cup Banchan™ Liqueur
6 oz. semi-sweet chocolate
1 egg yolk
½ cup sugar
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon salt egg white
2 cups heavy cream

Melt chocolate over hot water in a double boiler. Cool.
Beat yolks with sugar, milk and salt in top of double boiler. Cool and stir until mixture thickens slightly and coats the back of a metal spoon. Cool to room temperature and stir in Banchan.

Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Then beat heavy cream until it mounds easily.

Stir cooled chocolate and yolk mixture together. Fold whites and cream into chocolate. Pour into three quart serving dish and chill for 3-4 hours. Serves 8-10.
